Trauma Conference 103

Wednesday, September 16, 2009
8:00 am – 5:00pm
Wong Kerlee International
Conference Center
Loma Linda University

Course Description

This one-day conference is designed for the nurse and the healthcare professional working with trauma victims. Time will be spent on Geriatric trauma care management, local and statewide trauma organization and management, and adolescent drug and alcohol prevention. Additionally, non-punitive self reporting related to trauma and the healthcare field will be addressed. Any healthcare professional working with trauma victims will benefit from attending this conference.

Program Objectives

By the end of the Trauma Conference, the attendee will be able to:

1. Apply principles of Geriatric trauma care
2. Recognize local and statewide trauma management issues
3. Recall adolescent drug and alcohol prevention programs and strategies
4. Discuss non-punitive self reporting techniques related to trauma and healthcare.
